Verse 1:

A / fism / hm / E

A / fism / hm / E

Spring water trickles through meadow fissures

Waterfalls crash over rocks and mix with streams and brooks

Forest and hills ascend around, vineyards heavy with grape

Mountain giants oversee, casting reflections on the lake

Bridge:

fism / D / A / D / A

fism / G / E

The bells of God's houses ring out with praise, echoing from peak to peak

The bells of the cows, of the goats as they graze, to the farmer they speak

Chorus:

A / cism / fism / D / E / A

A / E / cism / D / E / D / E / A

With joy and praise, we stand here to say again

We love the swiss mountain land

As the anthem sings for all to hear

We feel and understand, that his beauty, dwells in this land

Verse 2:

A / fism / hm / E

A / fism / hm / E

The oberland smiles, she's ours for a while

Oh, how we love her so, no better place to go

Nights on clouded hills, when darkness fills the valleys to the peaks

Morning breaks with clean air, the sun shines without compare

Bridge:

fism / D / A / D / A

fism / G / E

Flowers, glaciers, marmots, snow, ice and lakes

Liquid sunshine, blissful mountains, just some of that it takes
